

“Any individual may lodge concern related to Vigilance in the Company in its respective units with the officers mentioned on the notice board displayed at the entrance of the respective offices of the Company. The concern will be investigated by the Company’s Chief Vigilance Officer. Any adverse remarks made by him will be perused and overseen by the Audit Committee of the Board on quarterly basis.”